

ARCHITECTURE AND YOU

The Opposites in New York City Landmarks and Our Lives!

The Terrain Gallery is proud to present this important exhibition, first shown at Flushing Library. It features photographs of many beloved New York landmarks, with comments by Anthony Romeo, Dale Laurin, John Stern, Carrie Wilson, and Vincent DiPietro from the popular series of talks based on this great principle of the philosophy Aesthetic Realism:

All beauty is a making one of opposites, and the making one of opposites is what we are going after in ourselves.

– Eli Siegel, founder of Aesthetic Realism

December 13, 2008 - March 5, 2009 • Gallery Hours: Wed-Fri 12-5, Sat 12-4

Reception: Sat., Dec. 20, 8 PM, at that evening's dramatic presentation People Are Trying to Put Opposites Together
